

MILAN DESIGN WEEK RETURNS TO ITS USUAL APRIL SLOT

After a two-year hiatus and a June 2022 edition, the world's largest annual design event, Milan returns to the Italian city for its usual spring date. The event will take place from April 17-23, 2023, including the Salone del Mobile program, as well as a series of exhibitions and events spread across different districts. Curious about the highlights?

CARTE BLANCHE A CONSTANCE GUISSET STUDIO

On the occasion of Milan Design Week 2023, the Institut Français Milano invites French designer Constance Guisset to present her work from April 17 to May 13, 2023. Dubbed 'Carte Blanche,' the exhibition is conceived as a colorful bubble, a break in the hustle and bustle of the Italian city, where visitors can discover the creations in a festive and ephemeral scenography. Guests will wander among the furniture in the central space before reaching an alcove plunged in darkness, where the projects of architecture, scenography and sets will be unveiled. The exhibition marks Guisset's first solo show in Milan.
